

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

This copy is for your personal, non-commercial use only. To order presentation-ready copies for distribution to your colleagues, clients or customers visit <http://www.djreprints.com>.

<http://www.wsj.com/articles/SB968678867835090271>

TODAY'S VENTURES

Bolero.net, Immunicon Receive New Funding

Updated Sept. 11, 2000 8:05 p.m. ET

Bolero.net Secures $30 Million

Bolero.net, New York, secured $30 million in a private placement of shares led by Apax Partners. Bolero.net (www.bolero.net) is a global initiative to move trade onto the Internet.

Immunicon Gets $21.8 Million, Announces Deal

Immunicon Corp., Huntington Valley, Penn., completed a private offering of convertible preferred equity totaling $21.8 million. Canaan Partners and Foundation Medical Partners led the round, with additional investors Johnson & Johnson Development Corp., LHC Corp. (an affiliate of Claneil Enterprises) and MedCapital, among others. The company said the funding will be used to develop technologies for screening, diagnosis, and monitoring of cancer and potential applications in cell therapy and genomics/proteomics. Separately, the company (www.immunicon.com) announced a development, license and supply agreement with Ortho-Clinical Diagnostics Inc., a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson Corp. Terms of the deal weren't disclosed.

DigiMine Raises $20 Million

DigiMine, Kirkland, Wash., raised $20 million in a Series B round of funding, led by Mayfield Fund. As part of the agreement, Mayfield's Yogen Dalal and Dana Settle will serve on various boards at digiMine. The company (www.digimine.com) is an application service provider.

FullAudio Secures $15 Million

FullAudio Inc., Chicago, secured $15 million in a second round of financing. The round was led by Venture Strategy Partners, with additional investments from New Enterprise Associates and Kettle Partners. The company (www.fullaudio.com) develops digital music technology.

Nband Raises $14 Million

NBand Communications Inc., Sunnyvale, Calif., raised $14 million in a second round of venture financing. VantagePoint Venture Partners led the round, with additional investments from Axis Communications, Sunrise Capital Fund and private investors. Matt Ocko, a partner with VantagePoint Venture Partners, will be joining nBand's board. NBand (www.nband.com) is a broadband wireless-technology company.

Woodwind Completes $12.2 Million Round

Woodwind Communications Systems Inc., Germantown, Md., completed a $12.2 million second round of private financing. Investors included Alta Partners, SpaceVest, Sterling Venture Partners, Boulder Ventures and Novak Biddle Venture Partners. Woodwind (www.woodwindcom.com) develops integrated access devices for broadband services.

Interxion Secures $173.6 Million

Interxion Holding N.V., Amsterdam, secured about 200 million euros ($173.6 million) of private-equity financing from the sale of Series B preferred stock. New investors included Goldman Sachs-sponsored Whitehall Real Estate Funds and GS Capital Partners 2000, DLJ Real Estate Capital Partners II, CSFB Private Equity, CSFB Real Estate Investment Banking, CSFB Technology Group and Enron Broadband Services, a subsidiary of Enron Corp. Existing shareholders participating in this round included the Baker Communications Fund II, Navis Partners V, Bear Stearns Merchant Banking and Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, among others. Interxion (www.interxion.com) plans to use the proceeds to continue the roll out of new Internet exchange centers across Europe, developing new service offerings for its customers and hiring additional managers and technical personnel.

IMediation Raises $52.5 Million

IMediation, San Francisco, raised $52.5 million in its third round of financing (see article). Investors included Deutsche Bank eVentures and GIC Special Investments. IMediation (www.imediation.com) develops services to enable business partners to jointly sell products online.

Mockingbird Networks Gets $32 Million

Mockingbird Networks, Cupertino, Calif., raised $32 million in funding. Alcatel Ventures led the round, which also included Technology Crossover Ventures. The company (www.mockingbirdnetworks.com) develops products for UNIX systems, telecommunications, data communications and application software.

Reflect.com Receives $30 Million

Reflect.com LLC, San Francisco, raised $30 million in its second round of financing. Investors included Procter & Gamble, Institutional Venture Partners and Redpoint Ventures. Reflect.com (www.reflect.com) is an online interactive beauty-care business.

Guru.com Gets $44 Million

Guru.com, San Francisco, announced that it secured $44 million in its Series C round of financing led by Investor AB. Other investors included August Capital, Credit Suisse First Boston, Greylock, Tarrant Venture Partners and WR Hambrecht. American Express Corp. and Red Hat Inc. made strategic investments. Guru said it has raised a total of $63 million in financing in just over a year. The company (www.guru.com) runs a marketplace that connects free-lancers with contract projects.

Mobilocity Secures $21 Million

Mobilocity Inc., New York, announced that it has secured $21 million in a second round of funding, led by Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Private Equity. The round also included investments from J.P. Morgan Capital; LabMorgan, the e-finance unit of J.P. Morgan; Siemens Business Services Ventures; Cambridge Samsung Partners, Telligent Capital and others. Mobilocity named Noah Walley, general partner of Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Venture Partners, to the Mobilocity board. The company (www.mobilocity.net) builds mobile Internet businesses.

Clareon Raises $30 Million

Clareon Corp., Portland, Maine, secured $30 million in second-round funding led by Technology Crossover Ventures, which invested $14 million. Other investors included Morgan Stanley Dean Witter and Comdisco, as well as original investors Mayfield Fund, Berkshire Partners and BancBoston Ventures. The company raised a first round of $15 million in March. Clareon (www.clareon.com) provides an Internet payment network for business-to-business transactions.

-- Compiled by Katherine Lange

Write to Katherine Lange at katherine.lange@wsj.com

