COMERICA PROVIDES $2.9 MILLION CREDIT FACILITY TO DIGIMINE

Kurt Peters , Executive Editor

KIRKLAND, Wash. – June 10, 2002 –Comerica (NYSE: CMA), a leading financial services company, announced today that its Technology and Life Sciences Division has provided digiMine™, Inc., the leader in e-business analytics and data mining solutions for business people, with a $2.9 million credit facility.

“Comerica is committed to serving the needs of technology and life sciences companies at every stage of their lifecycle,” said James Ellison, senior vice president and managing director of Comerica’s Northwest Technology and Life Sciences Division. “We’ve had the privilege of supporting digiMine through several growth phases and we are pleased to further expand our relationship once again. We look forward to continuing to work with this innovative company as it grows.”

By providing data mining and data warehousing as managed services, digiMine helps customers leverage their data for better marketing, sales and service operations. Founded in March 2000, digiMine has already attracted a number of Fortune 1000 customers. The company closed a $20.3 million C round of financing in mid-May 2002.

“We are impressed that Comerica caters its products and services to meet the needs of technology companies,” said Ron Cook, digiMine’s CFO. “As a fast-growing technology solution provider, we value partners that understand the unique opportunities and challenges of our business.”
