

---

2001:
a tech odyssey

the sixth annual WSA
industry
achievement
awards

---

WSA would like to congratulate the winners of the 2001 Industry Achievement Awards

Outstanding Contribution to Digital Government

Washington State Department of Information Services

The new category, Outstanding Contribution to Digital Government, was created to recognize and raise awareness of the accomplishments of city, county and state agencies working to transform the relationship between citizens and their government. This award was presented to the Washington State Department of Information Services in recognition of their work on the Access Washington state internet portal at <http://access.wa.gov>.

Business Product of the Year

digiMine, Inc. - digiMine Services

digiMine is setting new standards in the delivery of data warehousing and data mining for e-Business Intelligence. DigiMine's service is fast, powerful and affordable.

Consumer Product of the Year

RealNetworks - RealPlayer 8

RealPlayer 8, the industry-leading media player, is the gateway to the best audio and video programming on the Internet and the Real.com Network.

Internet Product of the Year

F5 Networks - 3-DNS

The 3-DNS Controller is an award-winning, global high availability, intelligent traffic management product for distributed Internet sites and data centers.

Most Promising New Company

Viathan Corporation

Viathan Corporation's storage infrastructure software virtualizes storage devices, dynamically allocates data across available storage devices and seamlessly migrates data when new devices are added.

Most Innovative Service Provider of the Year Aventail Corporation

The Aventail.Net managed service integrates people, process and technology, delivering a single infrastructure as a service, that gives users the ability to securely access applications from anywhere over the Internet.

Best Web Site

AtomFilms - www.atomfilms.com

The award-winning AtomFilms Web site is a thriving, dynamic platform for next-generation entertainment.

Outstanding Contribution to the Community

Cleveland High School Infotech Infusion

Creating technology-enriched educational experiences and a Career Academy through a partnership among Cleveland High School, the community, higher education and industry.